4.12. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the Chair, CEO, Board Secretary, or any three Directors. A person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Directors may fix any place as the place for holding the special meeting. the Bylaws.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, and with the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of Directors, if all Directors consent in writing or by electronic mail (email) to the action. Such consent may be given individually or collectively.

4.14. Notice. Written, printed, or electronic notice of any special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be delivered to each Director not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting. 4.15. Quorum. A majority of the number of Directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors. The Directors present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business even if enough Directors leave the meeting so that less than a quorum remains. However, no action may be approved without the vote of at least a majority of the number of Directors required to constitute a quorum.

4.16. Powers of Board of Directors. In addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred by these Bylaws upon them, the Board may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not directed or required to be exercised or done by statute, the Restated and Amended Certificate of Formation, or these Bylaws.

4.17. Duties of Directors. Directors shall discharge their duties, including any duties as committee members, in good faith, with ordinary care, and in a manner they reasonably believe to be in the best interest of the Corporation. Ordinary care is care that ordinarily prudent persons in similar positions would exercise under similar circumstances. In the discharge of any duty imposed or power conferred on Directors, they may in good faith rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, concerning the Corporation or another person that were prepared or presented by a variety of persons, including officers and employees of the Corporation, professional advisors or experts such as accountants or attorneys. A Director is not relying in good faith if the Director has knowledge concerning a matter in question that renders reliance unwarranted.

Directors are not deemed to have the duties of trustees of a trust concerning the Corporation or concerning any property held or administered by the Corporation, including property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of the property.

4.18. Duty to Avoid Improper Distributions. Directors who vote for or assent to improper distributions are jointly and severally liable to the Corporation for the value of improperly distributed assets, to the extent that debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Corporation are not after that paid and discharged. Any distribution made when the Corporation is insolvent, other than in payment of corporate debts, or any distribution that would render the Corporation insolvent is an improper distribution. A distribution made during liquidation without payment and discharge of or provision for all known debts, obligations, and liabilities, is also improper. Directors participating in a Board meeting at which the improper action is taken are presumed to have assented unless they dissent in writing. The written dissent must be filed with the Board Secretary before adjournment or mailed to the Board Secretary by registered mail or email immediately after adjournment.

A Director is not liable if, in voting for or assenting to a distribution, the Director (1) relies in good faith and with ordinary care on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by one or more officers or employees of the Corporation; legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the Director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or a committee of the Board of Directors of which the Director is not a member; (2) while acting in good faith and with ordinary care, considers the assets of the Corporation to be at least that of their book value; or (3) in determining whether the Corporation made adequate provision for payment, satisfaction, or discharge of all of its liabilities and obligations, relied in good faith and with ordinary care on financial statements or other information concerning a person who was or became contractually obligated to satisfy or discharge some or all of these liabilities or obligations. Furthermore, Directors are protected from liability if, in the exercise of ordinary care, they acted in good faith and in reliance on the written opinion of an attorney for the Corporation.

Directors who are held liable for an improper distribution are entitled to contribution from persons who accepted or received the improper distributions knowing they were improper. The contributions are made in proportion to the amount received by each such person.

4.19. Delegation of Duties. Directors are entitled to select advisors and delegate duties and responsibilities to them, such as the full power and authority to purchase or otherwise acquire stocks, bonds, securities, and other investments on behalf of the Corporation; and to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of the Corporation's assets and properties at a time and for a consideration that the advisor deems appropriate. The Directors have no liability for actions taken or omitted by the advisor if the Board of Directors acts in good faith and with ordinary care in selecting the advisor. The Board of Directors may remove or replace the advisor, with or without cause.

4.20. Voting Rights. Each member of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to one vote, except the CEO who shall have no vote, on each matter submitted to a vote of the Board of Directors.

4.21. Actions of Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall try to act by consensus. However, the vote of a majority of Directors present and voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be sufficient to constitute the act of the Board of Directors unless the law or the Bylaws require the act of a greater number. A Director who is present at a meeting and abstains from a vote is considered to be present and voting to determine the decision of the Board of Directors.

4.22. Presumption of Assent. Unless the dissent is specifically noted in the minutes, all Directors shall be deemed to have voted for the action, If the Board Secretary of the meeting refuses to note the dissent in the minutes, the dissenting Director shall mail, using certified or registered mail, the dissent to the Corporate Secretary within one business day after the Board of Directors adjourn the meeting. The Corporate Secretary shall include the dissent's letter with the minutes of the Board meeting.

4.23. Proxies. A Director may not vote at a meeting of the Board of Directors by proxy.

4.24. Compensation. Directors may not receive compensation or salaries for their services as a Director. A Director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in carrying out his or her duties as a Director, including any cost incurred to attend the meetings by the Board. A Director may serve the Corporation in any other capacity and receive compensation for those services as permitted by law.

4.25. Removal of Directors. Failure or refusal to perform prescribed duties shall constitute grounds for removal of any Director. Any National Officer, Regional Director, or an At-Large Director may be removed from office and membership on the Board of Directors by either of two methods. First, a written recall motion instituted by a Member and endorsed by at least twenty-five percent of the Members shall be submitted to the Board of Directors. The National Officer, Regional Director, or At-Large Director shall be removed upon a majority vote of the Members at any regular or special membership meeting of the Corporation. Second, a recall motion instituted by a Director and endorsed by at least five members of the Board of Directors shall be submitted at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. The National Officer, Regional Director, or At-Large Director shall be removed upon the affirmative vote of at least three-fourths of the members of the Board of Directors currently in office (excluding the proposed removal candidate) at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors.

4.26. Resignation of Directors. Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors, the CEO, or the Board Secretary. - (a) A Nominating Committee shall be appointed in each Region by the Regional Director at least nine months prior to the regular membership meeting.

- (b) It shall be the duty of the Regional Nominating Committee to nominate candidates for Regional Director in that Region. No member of the Nominating Committee may accept nomination for Regional Director. If a committee member does choose to run for Regional Director, such candidate's membership on the Nominating Committee shall terminate and the Regional Director shall immediately appoint a replacement.
- (c) The Regional Nominating Committee shall report to the Members in its Region by letter at least thirty days prior to the membership meeting where the election will be conducted. Nominations from the floor shall be permitted.

Monies contributed to an individual's campaign for election may be used only for that purpose and once the campaign is completed all remaining campaign funds must be returned to the contributing Member(s) or given to an organization that has IRS 501(c)(3) status.
- (h) For those regions that choose to elect a Deputy Regional Director, it may be done by one of two methods:

2. The RD makes a nomination to the Members in the region for their approval.

6.07. Term of Office. The term of office for each Regional Director shall be two years or until a successor is duly elected. The term of office shall begin following the close of the regular general membership meeting at which the election of the Regional Director was announced.

6.08. Deputy Regional Director. Each Region is authorized to establish a single position of Deputy Regional Director (DRD) who will act in cooperation with and under the direction of the Regional Director to assist in carrying out tasks outlined in Section 6.03. Qualifications specified for the DRD are the same as those of the RD. Any DRD must be able to assume the role of RD at any time in the two-year term, and not be in conflict with any provisions in the Bylaws, such as term limits for the previous service. When a Region has a DRD, a vacancy in the office of RD will be immediately filled by the DRD. A vacancy in the office of DRD during the term can be filled in accordance with Section 6.06(h).

However, the term of a committee member may terminate earlier if the committee is terminated, or if the member dies, ceases to qualify, resigns, or is removed as a member. 8.09. Actions of Committees. Committees shall try to take action by consensus. A committee member who is present at a meeting and abstains from a vote is considered to be present and voting to determine the act of the committee.

8.10. Proxies. A committee member may vote by proxy executed in writing by the committee member. No proxy shall be valid after three (3) months from the date of its execution.

one or more of its Directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership or association or other organization in which one or more of its Directors or officers are Directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, if:

- (a) the material facts concerning the financial interests are disclosed to the Executive Committee, and the Executive Committee authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested Directors;
- (b) the contract or transaction is fair to the Corporation at the time of the approval. Nothing herein shall prevent retroactive approval of a transaction; and
- (c) the interested Director that is present may be counted towards a quorum for purposes of voting on the contract or transaction. In the discretion of the Executive Committee, the interested Director may participate in the discussion of the matter; provided, however, the Director may not vote.

9.06. Prohibited Acts. As long as the Corporation is in existence, and except with the prior approval of the Executive Committee, no Director, officer, or committee member of the Corporation shall:

- (a) do any act in violation of the Bylaws or a binding obligation of the Corporation;

A Director or officer may inspect or receive copies if the person has a proper purpose related to the person's interest in the Corporation and if the person submits a request in writing stating the proper purpose. Only books and records relevant to the proper purpose may be inspected or copied. For purposes of this provision, "relevant" means supporting or evidencing the proper purpose identified in the request. As allowed under applicable law, and to protect the interests of the Corporation, and as a condition precedent to any inspection or copying of confidential, proprietary, or trade secret books and records, the Corporation shall have the right to require that the person requesting the records execute a Nondisclosure or Confidentiality Agreement relating to the nondisclosure of the books and records inspected or copied. Subject to the protection of the Corporation's interests in preventing the disclosure of confidential, proprietary or trade secret books and records, a person entitled to inspect the Corporation's books and records may do so at a reasonable time no later than required by Internal Revenue Regulation after the Corporation's receipt of a proper written request. The Executive Committee may establish reasonable fees for

The Internal Revenue Service requires that copies of some corporate documents to be made available to the legitimate, requesting public. The Corporation shall receive and respond as required by Internal Revenue Service guidelines to requests from the public for copies of the Corporation's Form 1023 and Form 990 if any. The Corporation shall maintain a file containing all documents required by the Internal Revenue Service to be made available to the public.

ARTICLE 11 FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be from January 1 of a given year through December 31 of each year.

ARTICLE 12 INDEMNIFICATION

12.01. When Indemnification is Required, Permitted, and Prohibited.

- (a) The Corporation shall indemnify a Director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation who was, is, or may be named defendant or respondent in any proceeding as a result of his or her actions or omissions within the scope of his or her official capacity in the Corporation. For the purposes of this article, an agent includes one who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, venture, proprietor, or trustee of a partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan, or another enterprise. However, the Corporation shall indemnify a person only if he or she acted in good faith and reasonably believed that the conduct was in the Corporation's best interests. In the case of a criminal proceeding, the person may be indemnified only if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful. The Corporation shall not indemnify a person who is found liable to the Corporation or is found liable to another based on improperly receiving a personal benefit. A person is conclusively considered to have been found liable concerning any claim, issue, or matter if a court of competent jurisdiction has adjudged the person liable and all appeals have been exhausted.
- (b) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not necessarily preclude indemnification by the Corporation.
- (c) The Corporation shall pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a Director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation in connection with the person's appearance as a witness or other participation in a proceeding involving or affecting the Corporation when the person is not a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding.

- (d) In addition to the situations otherwise described in this paragraph, the Corporation may indemnify a Director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation to the extent permitted by law. However, the Corporation shall not indemnify any person in any situation in which indemnification is prohibited by the terms of paragraph 9.01(a), above.
- (e) Before the final disposition of a proceeding, the Corporation may pay indemnification expenses permitted by the Bylaws and authorized by the Corporation. However, the Corporation shall not pay indemnification expenses to a person before the final disposition of a proceeding if the person is a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding brought by the Corporation or the person is alleged to have improperly received a personal benefit or committed other willful or intentional misconduct.
- (f) If the Corporation may indemnify a person under the Bylaws, the person may be indemnified against judgments, penalties, including excise and similar taxes, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees) actually incurred in connection with the proceeding. However, if the proceeding was brought by or on behalf of the Corporation, the indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding.

12.02. Procedures Relating to Indemnification Payments.

- (a) Before the Corporation may pay any indemnification expenses (including attorney's fees), the Corporation shall specifically determine that indemnification is permissible, authorize indemnification, and determine that expenses to be reimbursed are reasonable, except as provided in paragraph 12.02(c), below. The Corporation may make these determinations and decisions by any one of the following procedures:
 1. Majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who, at the time of the vote, are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding.
 2. If such a quorum cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of a committee of the Board of Directors, designated to act in the matter by a majority vote of all Directors, consisting solely of two or more Directors who at the time of the vote are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding.
 3. Determination by special legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors by vote as provided in paragraph 12.02(a)1 or 12.02(a)2, or if such a quorum cannot be obtained and such a committee cannot be established, by a majority vote of all Directors.
- (b) The Corporation shall authorize indemnification and determine that expenses to be reimbursed are reasonable in the same manner that it determines whether indemnification is permissible. If special legal counsel determines that indemnification is permissible, authorization of indemnification and determination of the reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the manner specified by paragraph 12.02(a)3, above, governing the selection of special legal counsel. A provision contained in the Certificate of Formation, the Bylaws, or a resolution of the Board of Directors that requires the indemnification permitted by paragraph 12.01, above, constitutes sufficient authorization of indemnification even though the provision may not have been adopted or authorized in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible.

- (c) The Corporation shall pay indemnification expenses before final disposition of a proceeding only after the Corporation determines that the facts then are known would not preclude indemnification and the Corporation receives a written affirmation and undertaking from the person to be indemnified. The determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification and authorization of payment shall be made in the same manner as a determination that indemnification is permissible under paragraph 12.02(a), above. The person's written affirmation shall state that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under the Bylaws. The written undertaking shall provide for the repayment of the amount paid or reimbursed by the Corporation if it is ultimately determined that the person has not met the requirements for indemnification. The undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the person, but it need not be secured, and it may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

A waiver of notice shall be effective whether signed before or after the time stated in the notice being waived.

13.03. Waiver of Notice by Attendance. The attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting unless the person attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.
